

Irish Peace Conference Cancelled; Negotiations Still Are Not Ruptured

VALERA REFUSES TO YIELD CLAIM OF INDEPENDENCE

Premier Lloyd George Declares
Further Parley at This Time
Is Impossible

Road Yet Open

Premier Gives Republican Leader
Ample Time to Reconsider;
Rebukes Irish People

(By The Associated Press)

London, Sept. 15.—The arguments for the proposed Irish peace conference are cancelled, the negotiations still are not ruptured. That in brief is the message of today's unexpected and surprising development. Eamon DeValera having renounced his claim to enter the conference as the representative of independent sovereign state, Premier Lloyd George declared that such admission is impossible. He announced the cancellation of arrangements for the conference and the necessity of his consulting his colleagues on the subject. The premier is careful not to leave the door to possible resumption of the negotiations. On the contrary, he gives Mr. DeValera and his supporters the amplest opportunity to reconsider their position; he describes himself even as "laid up" at Gaik, necessitating a few days' rest.

Must Remain Indoors.

He fact that Premier Lloyd George offering from a chair was confirmed by his official residence in Downing street tonight. It was also announced that it would be necessary for the premier to remain indoors for a few days.

Declaring that there was but one way to a claim which would be valued to Great Britain's acknowledging Ireland's right to negotiate a treaty of closer association with "some foreign power," he mildly rebukes the Irish people for taking single steps to make the generous offer of the British government. The whole tone of the letter, in fact, is that the premier still retains hope of some more favorable development. Incidentally the premier's letter clears up the mystifying events of the last few days, showing that Mr. DeValera's reply was taken by Mr. Balfour and Boland to Gaik, but that the premier tried unsuccessfully to persuade modification of its terms. He offered to regard it as not having been delivered.

He fact that Mr. DeValera and his league failed to take advantage of the offer is considered an adverse factor and tends a serious aspect to the situation. The prospect is that there will be no move now from either side for a while. It is noteworthy that in the exchanges, the traditional diplomatic methods of sending notes by hand were dropped in favor of the more expeditious telegraph lines. The text of Mr. Lloyd George's letter, which was telegraphed tonight, is:

Mr. Lloyd George's Reply.
"I informed your emissaries who came to me here Tuesday that the offer of a conference to negotiate with a sovereign state would make a conference between us impossible. That brought me a letter from you which you specifically reaffirm that you, stating that your nation 'has finally declared its independence and recognizes itself as a sovereign state,' and it is only, you added, 'as representatives of that state and as its chosen guardians that we have authority or powers to act on behalf of our people.' I asked them to warn you of the serious effect of such a paragraph offered to regard the letter as not delivered to me in order that you might have time to reconsider it. I must accordingly cancel the arrangements for the conference next week at Inverness and must, I am sure, communicate this to you as soon as possible, but as I am for the moment laid up here, a few days' delay is inevitable. Meanwhile, I must make it absolutely clear that His Majesty's government cannot reconsider its position, which I have stated to you.

Can't Recognize Ireland.

"If we accepted a conference with your delegates on the formal status of the claim which you have affirmed it would constitute an offer of recognition by His Majesty's government of the severance of Ireland from the empire and of its existence as an independent republic. "It would, moreover, entitle you to declare as a right acknowledged by us, that in preference to association with the British empire, you would pursue closer association by a treaty with some other foreign power. There is only one answer possible to such a claim as that. "The great concessions which His Majesty's government made to the feeling of your people in order to secure a lasting settlement deserved, in my opinion, some more generous response, but so far every advance has been made by us. "On your part, you have not come to meet us by a single step, but have merely reiterated in phrases of empty challenge the letter and the spirit of your original claims. "I am, yours faithfully, "Lloyd George."

Mr. DeValera's note, which provoked the above reply from Mr. Lloyd George, follows:

What DeValera Wanted.

"We are unhesitating in declaring our willingness to enter a conference to ascertain how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British Empire can best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations."

"Our readiness to contemplate such an association was indicated in our letter of August 10. We have accordingly summoned the day, that we may submit to it for ratification the names of the representatives it is our intention to propose. We hope that these representatives will find it possible to be at Inverness on the date you suggest, September 20."

"In this final note we deem it our duty to reaffirm that our position is and can only be as we have defined it throughout this correspondence. Our nation has formally declared its independence and recognizes itself as a sovereign state. It is only as representatives of that state and as its chosen guardians that we have authority or powers to act on behalf of our people."

"As regards the principle of government by consent of the governed, in the very nature of things it must be the basis of any agreement that will achieve the purpose we have at heart—that is, the final reconciliation of our nation with yours."

"We have suggested no interpretation of that principle save its every day interpretation, the sense, for example, in which it was understood by the plain men and women of the world when, on January 5, 1918, you said:

"The settlement of Europe must be based on such grounds of reason and justice as will give some promise of stability. Therefore is that we feel that government with the consent of the governed must be the basis of any territorial settlement in this war." "These words are the true answer to the criticism of our position which your last letter puts forward. The principle was understood then to mean the right of nations that had been annexed to empire against their will to free themselves from the grasping hand of the victor. That is the sense in which we understand it. In reality, it is your government, when it seeks to redivide the ancient nation and to partition its territory, that would give to the principle an interpretation that would undermine the fabric of every democratic state and drive the civilized world back into tribalism. "I am, sir, faithfully yours, "Eamon de Valera."

LONDON PAPERS EXPRESS HOPE BREAK IS NOT FINAL

London, Sept. 16.—Surprise and disappointment are expressed by most of the morning newspapers today over Eamon DeValera's reply to Premier Lloyd George. But hope generally is expressed that wiser counsels will prevail to prevent a break in the truce and at the same time give the Irish people a chance to be consulted as to their wishes.

The London Times thinks a situation of the utmost gravity has arisen. "There can be no question," says this newspaper, "of the sincerity of the government's desire to meet an Irish delegation; nor is there reason to doubt that they have gone to the utmost limit which this country would sanction. The Times adds that Mr. DeValera's action in the circumstances is not likely to be questioned. It expresses the hope that "dark though the outlook be, it is not even now necessary to despair."

The Daily Telegraph expresses disappointment over Mr. DeValera's letter, "for there seemed to be a chance that the point had been reached at which Mr. DeValera and those acting with him would find it advisable to come to terms with reality."

Belief is expressed by the Daily Telegraph that the Daily Express bases its attitude on the results of the past Irish election, by which the nation declared its independence; but it asserts that a change in the mind of the electorate has occurred and that the Irish people now are ready to surrender their demand for an independent republic, but that DeValera and his associates are unable to drop their independence policy without involving themselves in contempt and ridicule.

6 MEN ENTOMBED IN CARBONDALE MINE

Force Working in Relays Exerts
Every Effort to Rescue
Victims of Accident

Saratoga, Pa., Sept. 15.—A force of men working in relays is exerting every effort to rescue six men entombed today in the Wilson Creek mine of the Hudson Coal company at Carbondale, by a fall of roof.

The men were engaged in second mining or pillar robbing in a section of the mine which is said to be very dangerous. When they blew away the pillar, the roof caved between them and the drift opening, blocking exit. The fall rescue has been going on ever since. Early tonight, members of the rescue force were sure they heard voices on the other side of the wall, but could get no response to calls.

The work of driving a hole through the mass of rock which blocks the passageway is slow and officials of the company entertain no hope of reaching the men before tomorrow morning.

PROTEST FEDERAL DRUG RAID ON BRITISH SHIP

New York, Sept. 15.—The steamship King Alexander, which figured in a spectacular drug and liquor raid last week after a race to port with international agents, sailed for Greece today and was obliged to carry back 17 of her would-be immigrants because the September quota for Greek immigrants had been reached.

The steamship's agents have lodged a protest with the British embassy at Washington against methods used by federal agents in conducting the raid, in which they charged two of the crew were killed and five wounded. The agents claimed the crew was unarmed.

Washington, Sept. 15.—The British embassy, it was said today, has received a protest in connection with the recent drug and liquor raid on the steamship King Alexander at New York, and it is expected will request the state department for an official report covering the facts of the case.

JOHNNY WILSON DENOUNCED.

Jersey City, Sept. 15.—The New Jersey Boxing commission today adopted a resolution accusing Johnny Wilson of Boston, middleweight boxing champion, of failure to put forth his best effort in his match with Bryan Downey of Cleveland in this city last night. The commission voted to place Wilson's share of the purse in a depository pending final disposition of the case.

LABOR AND FARMER BODIES NECESSARY

But They Must Not Seek to Exert
Political Power, Governor Miller
Declares at Fair

Syracuse, Sept. 15.—Labor and farmers' organizations are necessary, but their sole justification is economic, Governor Nathan L. Miller said in an address at the New York state fair here today. "When either seeks to exert political power," he added, "they attempt that which is hostile to American institutions and is certain to result to their own disadvantage."

Pointing to the example of Russia as a warning, the governor said: "Let there be cooperation within the law among those having common and legitimate interests to serve, but let us never forget that the maintenance of our free institutions is of transcendent importance to every individual citizen."

Governor Miller's address mainly was devoted to agricultural problems confronting New York state farmers. Pointing to the great increases in the value of farm property and farm crops in the state within the last few years, the speaker said that although more than half of the state's population dwell in cities and manufacturing towns, better and more scientific cultivation of the soil is helping to balance the drift between urban and rural population.

Private enterprise he said, should be stimulated to provide more adequate storage facilities and that this was an appropriate field for cooperative effort.

The problem of transportation more directly involved the exercise of state power, said the governor in reviewing the state's road building accomplishments. Creation of a port district and port authority by New York and New Jersey "against the opposition of ignorant provincialism and selfishness," also was mentioned as a step toward improving terminal facilities.

The speaker also believed that the state barge canal could be made to provide for quick transportation from the farm to New York city.

While relying on municipalities to provide better terminal markets, means must be found for improving the system "to stabilize conditions and prevent glut and shortages with their attendant waste and fluctuations of price from which the speculator alone profits."

"These are some of the problems demanding the best of thought of the best minds available," declared Governor Miller. "The problem will not be solved by arousing a conflict of interests, or for the benefit solely of a special interest. It is not the consumer's problem. And it will be solved only along the line of mutual interest of all of the people of the state."

"We have in our midst all sorts of people with varying beliefs. But to attempt to crush out divisions, to attempt to make the country will fall, as it has always failed," he said, "because the great mass of our people are, first of all, American citizens."

MAY RAISE LEAGUE MEMBERSHIP TO 50

Applications of Latvia and Ethiopia Approved—Smaller
States Feel Slighted

(By The Associated Press.)

Geneva, Sept. 15.—The membership of the League of Nations will be increased to 50 if the assembly adopts the recommendation of the political committee, which today decided to approve the admission of Latvia and Ethiopia. The applications of Lithuania and Hungary were put over, the committee deciding to await M. Hyman's report, which is expected Monday, on the efforts to settle the Vilna dispute before acting on Lithuania.

The finance committee, which is scrutinizing the expenditures of the secretariat, as well as the labor bureau, today asked Albert Thomas, head of the labor bureau, how it happened that although the United States is not a member of the League, he had a number of Americans on his payroll.

"I found some remarkably capable men in the United States," Mr. Thomas replied, "and if I can find more like them I will take them on wherever they come from."

The preponderance of British and French on the secretariat and the labor bureau is being severely criticized by the representatives of the smaller states. The committee will probably recommend that so far as possible all states represented in the assembly shall have proportionate representation in the executive organization.

SAVE TWINS FROM SUFFOCATION

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 15.—Feeble cries emanating from a locked suitcase on the upper deck of the Detroit-Windsor ferry steamer late today led to the discovery of twin baby girls, several weeks old. Police are searching for a woman who brought the suitcase aboard and, they declare, apparently abandoned the babies to suffocation. The infants were taken to a hospital, where they were reported out of danger.

Officials had found no clue to their identity tonight.

NEW POLITICAL PARTY.

New York, Sept. 15.—The committee of 48, of which J. A. Hopkins is executive chairman, announced today it is organizing a new political party to enter the 1922 congressional campaign. Solution of the railroad problem, reduction of national expenditures and relief from taxation by providing new and legitimate sources of revenue, were stated to be its chief aims. Candidates will be nominated in various states.

MAY NOT PRESS MURDER CHARGE

Officials Decide Today Whether to Prosecute Arbuckle Only on Manslaughter Count

STILL IN PRISON

Actor Is Scheduled to Appear in Court Tomorrow; Miss Rappe
to Be Buried Today

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—District Attorney Brady announced tonight that no decision had yet been reached whether to proceed against Roscoe C. "Fatty" Arbuckle tomorrow in police court on the murder charge preferred against him, or to ask for dismissal of the charge in view of the grand jury indictment against Arbuckle for manslaughter.

The decision will be made tomorrow morning, Mr. Brady said. His statement was made after a conference with his deputies and with Chief of Police O'Brien and Captain of Detectives Matheson.

The body of Miss Virginia Rappe is not to be removed from San Francisco to Los Angeles tonight, but will be taken to the southern city tomorrow. The undertaking establishment in charge announced today that arrangements could not be completed in time to ship the body before tomorrow.

Vigilance Committee Cooperates.

The manager of the establishment was asked in a telegram from Henry Lehman, Miss Rappe's fiancé, in New York, to whisper in the dead girl's ear, "Henry loves you."

"She will hear you," the telegram continued.

Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, chairman of the special committee named by the Women's Vigilance committee yesterday to cooperate with District Attorney Brady in the investigation of the Arbuckle case, and Mrs. Robert H. Dean, a prominent member of the special committee, waited on Brady today and pledged him the full support of the committee.

The women announced that the vigilance committee, which is made up of a number of San Francisco club women, will have members of the special committee at every public hearing of the Arbuckle case, will provide every possible protection to the women witnesses, and will cooperate otherwise in every way possible. The developments in the case today were:

The Day's Developments.

Robert H. McCormack, assistant United States attorney general in charge of liquor prohibition prosecution, announced that he would conduct a sweeping investigation of the liquor phases of the Arbuckle case, "even if such investigation reached into the moving picture colony at Los Angeles."

Arbuckle is accused of having had a quantity of liquor at the party in which he is charged with having inflicted fatal injuries on Miss Rappe.

The manslaughter indictment against Arbuckle voted by the county grand jury yesterday, was returned in the court of the presiding superior judge, and the case assigned to the court of Judge Harold Landerback. Bail was set at $5,000 cash or $10,000 bonds.

Arbuckle's appearance in court was set for Saturday, when he will be arraigned and may plead on the charge, if he does not waive his right to a continuance.

A certified check covering Arbuckle's cash bail was deposited with the bond and warrant clerk, but it was announced that he could not be admitted to bail until the murder charges had been disposed of.

Tomorrow, Arbuckle is scheduled to appear before Police Judge Lazarus for a further hearing on the murder charge preferred by Mrs. Bambina Maude Delmont, one of those present at Arbuckle's party.

A telegram from Mayor L. C. Hodgson of St. Paul which thanked Brady for his announced intention to prosecute the case without fear or favor was made public by Brady today. It contained:

"Latest reports indicate Arbuckle money is overcoming state testimony. Do not falter. Fight this to a finish. If Arbuckle is not punished the moving picture business is done, for decent people are tired of the eccentricities of genius. Go the limit and win by a good old-fashioned fight."

Brady replied that "in spite of Arbuckle's money and influence, the case will be prosecuted most vigorously."

Lehman Demands Justice.

Another telegram from Lehman, who is in New York, to Brady, also made public, said:

"For the sake of God and justice to men, don't let justice be cheated. It brought tears of rage to my eyes when I read your speech that influence and wealth are brought into play to bar justice. I cried because you told the truth in spite of the pressure of gold to smother it."

"You are convinced from facts and from knowing him that Arbuckle killed Virginia Rappe as a result of his attack on her."

"Don't let them cheat justice—for God's sake, don't."

The undertaking establishment received the following telegram from Lehman:

"Please deposit Virginia Rappe's body in manner suggested. Wait for shipping instruction at Los Angeles representative has not wired me name of undertaker who will have charge of the funeral. Lillian Gatin acceptable."

PRESIDENT HARDING IS HOMEWARD BOUND

Sets Sail in Mayflower After Day
Spent on Hudson and at West Point

New York, Sept. 15.—President Harding was homeward bound tonight on the yacht Mayflower after a day spent on the Hudson river and at the West Point military academy. The trip is the conclusion of a vacation cruise about New York waters, with daily stops for golf at various clubs.

The month-long trip down the river tonight followed nine holes of golf at the academy grounds, a review of the cadets and inspection of the buildings. It had not been decided whether the President would reach Washington Sunday or Monday, but it was expected that he would stop off at Norfolk, Va., for a game of golf. A torpedo boat destroyer accompanied the yacht, down the Hudson and through New York harbor. The Mayflower then put out to sea alone, headed for the Virginia capes.

Following the military review at the academy today, the President and his party, including Secretary of War Weeks, inspected the dormitory and mess hall. The chief executive expressed the opinion during the tour that the dormitory rooms, built for two cadets, lacked sufficient ventilation for the three and four youths now assigned to them. Mrs. Harding examined the kitchen. The party also was entertained in the chapel with a pipe organ recital.

Among the President's guests who were able to inspect the academy were Attorney General Daugherty and the President's secretary, George R. Christian Jr. The latter suffered a broken rib last Tuesday when he fell through an open hatch on the Mayflower, but he was able to be around.

As the Mayflower passed New York tonight, arrangements were made to allow the secretary of war to disembark to take a train for Washington, where he has an engagement tomorrow, and to pick up Secretary of Commerce Hoover, who spent today in New York on business.

ARNSTEIN'S PAL AGAIN INDICTED FOR FORGERY

Washington, Sept. 15.—W. W. Eastard, former New York stock broker, now under sentence of two years in the penitentiary in the Arnstein conspiracy case, was indicted by a local grand jury today for forgery.

The indictments charging in each case forgery of a check were returned. Eastard is in jail in default of a $10,000 bond on his appeal from the Arnstein conviction and a $5,000 bond on a requisition from Governor Edwards of New Jersey for his return there to answer a charge of conspiracy in connection with the sale of certain bonds. The Arnstein conspiracy involved the bringing to Washington for sale of bonds stolen from Wall street messengers.

DAUNTLESS ARRIVES TODAY.

New York, Sept. 15.—The British cruiser Dauntless, bearing the bodies of the Americans who lost their lives when the dirigible ZR-2 collapsed on August 24, will arrive here early tomorrow, according to wireless messages received tonight at the New York navy yard.

The Dauntless will be escorted into the harbor by a fleet of destroyers and aircraft, and will dock at the navy yard. Later in the day, a memorial service will be held. Secretary of the Navy Denby will participate in the ceremonies.

DRY AGENT ARRESTED.

Jersey City, Sept. 15.—George S. Ridner, a prohibition enforcement agent attached to the Newark office, was arrested tonight on a warrant charging him with conspiracy to defraud and soliciting and accepting a bribe in connection with the activities of bootleggers in smuggling liquor into ports along the coast for exportation.

His arrest came from prohibition enforcement headquarters in Washington. He is under indictment by the federal grand jury.

GREETED CENTRAL AMERICA.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Felicitations on the occasion of the celebration of the centenary of independence were sent today by President Harding to the republics of Central America.

Restory of the county grand jury.

The letter was turned over to the police. Arbuckle bid goodbye to his cell mate, David Bender, who escaped from the Maryland penitentiary. Bender left today in charge of a Maryland official to serve the remainder of his term. Bender wished Arbuckle "good luck" and the film comedian reciprocated the sentiment.

TROLLEY FARE BOOST DENIED

Utica Company's Application Is
First to Be Decided by New State Commission

PUBLIC HAS RIGHTS

Duty of Concern Is to Operate at Lowest Possible Cost, Decision Asserts

New York, Sept. 15.—Application of the New York State Railways company for permission to increase street car fares in the city of Utica from six to ten cents, was denied tonight by the state public service commission. It was the first important fare increase case to be decided by the new state commission.

The opinion, prepared by Chairman William A. Prendergast, was adopted unanimously and in part, said: "Public utilities just as other departments of business, must expect to cope with periods of depression and poor earnings, just as at other times they enjoy periods of prosperity and full dividends. If the public is expected to make up every deficiency in order to give a good round rate of earning power, then the public is entitled to the benefits of surplus prosperity."

"Although a franchise rate once fixed must not be presumed to be immutable, the reasons advanced for changing it, should be of the most controlling character. In this case, the local authorities have already conceded an advance in passenger fares from five cents to six cents. The local authorities, therefore, cannot be charged with failure to appreciate the additional revenue requirements of the street railroad company due to war conditions. With the subsidence of these conditions, it is not in order for the railroad company to be seeking further advances, especially in the form of its present utterly extravagant request for a ten-cent fare.

"On the other hand, it is the duty of the company to so administer its affairs through economies and improvements, that the fare to be charged to the public will be at the lowest possible minimum consistent with good service and an adequate return to the investors."

FIVE SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Mother, Daughter, Son and Two Friends Joined in Farmer's Murder

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 15.—Mother, daughter, son and two male friends of Marcellus Cook, aged farmer, were sentenced to life imprisonment today for the murder several weeks ago of the older Cook. The jury in the trial of the five persons was directed by County Judge Sewell to bring in a verdict of guilty after the attorneys for both sides had given their content and experts had testified that the defendants were persons of arrested development.

Those sentenced are Mrs. Julia Cook, who was charged with having instigated the crime for the sole purpose of getting rid of her aged and paralytic husband; Ira Cook, the son, who cut his father's throat from ear to ear; Minnie Cook, daughter, who held her father's face while the crime was committed; Henry Wheeler, a friend of the family, said to be the slayer of Minnie Cook, and James Barthel, accused of having planned the murder.

CANADA GETS GRAIN SHIPPING.

Ottawa, Sept. 15.—Large quantities of American grain for export to Europe have been shipped by way of Montreal in the last two months, instead of over the Buffalo and New York routes, it was revealed tonight in a report issued by the dominion bureau of statistics. The diversion in transportation was said to be due to the fact that the all-water Canadian route from Chicago, Duluth and Milwaukee to Lake Superior ports, thence by rail to Montreal, cost two and three-quarters cents per bushel less after figuring the premium on American money and the elevator charges at New York.

May Ask German Husbands to Put Wives on a Salary

(By The Associated Press)

Berlin, Sept. 15.—The National Association of German Housewives has asked the Prussian parliament to recognize it formally as a labor union, but the request was denied when it was learned the organization's constitution had failed to specify whether the housewives were employers or employees.

The rejection of the request disclosed differences of opinion among the members of the various branches, some asserting that women who did their own housework were employees, while housewives having maids or other hired help were employers.

Objections, particularly by peasant women, to classification of married women whose household duties were performed by servants as "professional" women, brought about an attempt to evade the issue by the use of the words "professional calling" instead of laborers in the constitution. Explaining denial of the application, which would have given the organization officials privileges enjoyed by labor unions, the parliamentary spokesman said:

"An organization must justify under the statutes by its activities the right to be designated as composed of professionals."

In connection with the association's activities, which extend virtually to all towns and hamlets, with thousands of members, there is much discussion as to whether an attempt will be made to enforce the demands by strikes, lock-outs or arbitration. It is even suggested that if ultra-radicals support the present conservative officials, there is a probability that husbands will be asked to put their wives on a salary and recognize women's equality by sharing in the work of cooking and washing and caring for the children.

Babbitt was boss from the word go and allowed seven hits.

Tammett on his first four trips to the plate got a hit for each time up, while Amelment of the same team got three singles on his last three appearances at the rubber.

There were a couple of fast doubles made, one by each team, but aside from that about the only things which caused the patrons present to shout were the errors; which were numerous, with the transportation men making the majority of them.

Boylan was injured in the seventh inning and had to retire in favor of Baker, brought in from the bench, got a homer on a single. That is the ball was an ordinary one base hit, but while no errors were committed at this particular time, it bounded in such a manner and was thrown to the wrong place, that the runner got all four sacks.

Y. M. C. A. ALLEYS OPEN.

New Pla Spotters Installed and Alleys Put Into Condition.

At 1:30 o'clock tomorrow the Y. M. C. A. bowling alleys will be opened, after having been closed for the summer season. During the summer some decided improvements have been made so that the alleys are now in fine shape. The most decided improvement is the installation of Peerless pin spotters in place of the pin setters. By means of the spotters the pins can be set up quickly and there is no chance that they will not be in their proper alignment and position. The alleys have been painted and refinished. Painters have also redecorated the room.

Special inducements are being made to get every bowler out to try the courts on the opening day. Non-members will be allowed the use of the alleys at membership rates. Two boxes of candy will be given as prizes. Later in the season tournaments will be arranged; and with the interest that is being manifested it is expected that the coming winter will see some live competition on the Y. M. C. A. alleys.

GOOD GOLF AT COOPERSTOWN.

Carl Anderson and S. E. McKean Play Interesting Match There.

Yesterday Carl H. Anderson, the Wilson golf ball expert, and S. E. McKean, who played a close golf match at the Oneonta Country club on Wednesday afternoon, went to Cooperstown yesterday, accompanied by Ezzary Simpson of the Country club. McKean won from Anderson by one up, the individual score of each player being:

	Out	In	Total
Anderson—	4 4 4 5 4 3 5 5—39	4 3 4 5 4 4 4 5—36	Total—75.
McKean—	5 4 4 5 5 3 4 4—38	5 3 5 4 5 4 3 5—33	Total—71.

In the afternoon Anderson and Simpson played in a foursome against McKean and Rayner, the latter of the Cooperstown Country club, the former winning 2 up and 16 to go. The score of the foursome follows:

	Out	In	Total
Anderson and Simpson—	4 5 3 5 4 4 4 4—38	4 3 4 4 4 4 3 5—34	Total—72.
Rayner and McKean—	4 5 3 5 4 4 4 4—37	4 3 4 4 4 4 4 5—37	Total—74.

HOME RUNS WILL BE FEWER.

Ball Park Fence to Be Moved—Other Contemplated Improvements.

Unless the league baseball is made livelier it is probable that fewer balls will be knocked over the left field fence for home runs than this year. Under the direction of Dr. F. H. Marx, president of the Community Athletic association, a squad of volunteer workers will commence this morning the task of moving the left field fence back from 65 to 75 feet. This will involve the removal of several trees now standing directly back of the fence. Members of this year's team and other interested citizens have donated their services for the task. More volunteers are needed, however. The more the merrier, says the doctor.

Other contemplated improvements will make the ball park one of the best for a city of Oneonta's size in the state. Both the infield and the outfield will be carefully graded and seeded this fall. It is intended to have a grass diamond with skinned base paths, after the manner of league diamonds. Plans for the grandstand and bleachers include extensive enlargement with an arrangement whereby there will be many seats but only one entrance. This will greatly facilitate the handling of large crowds. This work will not be done until spring, however.

Cows for Sale.

I will be in Oneonta Thursday night, Sept. 15, with a load of Sullivan county cows. They will freshen this month and next, a fine bunch. F. H. Bouton, 82 Dietz street.

TELLS WHY MEN GREW THIN AFTER LEAVING THE ARMY

SUGGEST WAY FOR THEM TO REGAIN WEIGHT, STRENGTH.

CLEAR SKIN, VITALITY. HIS TIP IS GOOD FOR WOMEN ALSO

For those not familiar with the vital part Vitamins play in health, it may be said that most foods contain Vitamins, but this vital element is often destroyed in cooking or during the process of preparing. In the army, navy, aviation, etc., men and women are fed a scientific diet, rich in Vitamins and quickly grow stronger, robust, rosy, and free of skin troubles. As soon as they leave the army or navy and the scientific diet and start choosing their own foods, they usually grow thin, weak, pale and anemic. That is why doctors, medical journals, hospitals, public health officials and chemists urge people to get more Vitamins. This explains why many people are eating yeast, which is rich in Vitamins.

Local druggists recommend a tiny tablet, which is very easy to take, and contains a proper dose of both Water and Fat Soluble Vitamins in highly concentrated form. Results are quick, more economical, and being made expressly for medicinal use, are better for you.

People in a half-sick, pale, thin, under-nourished condition when they have taken these Phos-Vitamins Tablets three or four weeks and gained weight, strength, color, freedom from boils, pimples, car-buncles, etc. and a new buoyant and vigor. The reader can secure a bottle of Phos-Vitamins Tablets at the nearest drug store or send $1. plus a war tax, to Irving Laboratory, Wheeling, W. Va.

PUBLIC REST ROOM OPENS.

Gratifying Use of Facilities Offered Made on Opening Day.

That the Public Rest room at 115 Main street will fill a long-felt need in the city was demonstrated by the use made of its facilities by citizens on the opening day, yesterday. According to Mrs. Mathias Cross, who has supervision of the room, more than 75 people visited the Rest room and availed themselves of its conveniences.

Mrs. Cross will be at the rooms daily from 9 to 6 o'clock to keep them in order, give information to patrons, and check parcels. An effort is being made to have the motor buses plying between Oneonta and vicinity towns make their headquarters near the rest room. The Sidney and Stamford buses have done so already and it is hoped that the Cooperstown and Worcester conveyances will soon swing into line.

The opening of the Rest room makes a reality a plan which the Chamber of Commerce has been working on for several months. It is confidently hoped that such use will be made of the rooms as to justify the time and money spent in their creation.

SIX FINE ENTERTAINMENTS

CONDITIONS IN SYRIA.

Mrs. George H. Scherer Gives Address at First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. George H. Scherer of Suk-el-Charb, who, with her husband, is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Morton B. Brownell, 8 Traft avenue, gave a very interesting address on conditions in the Far East at the prayer meeting service at the First Presbyterian church last evening. Rev. and Mrs. Scherer are spending a year's leave of absence in America after eight years' missionary work in Syria.

Mrs. Scherer spoke specifically of the conditions existing among the women and children in Syria. She speaks with authority on this question and her remarks were followed closely by those fortunate enough to be present.

At the regular church service Sunday morning, Mrs. Scherer will speak on her experiences and work in Syria during the past eight years.

Meetings Today.

The Loyal Helpers of the Main Street Baptist church will meet with Mrs. Alger, Upper Main street.

Regular meeting of the Oneonta Valley lodge, B. K. C. of A., tonight at 7 o'clock. All members are requested to be present. A sphere will be representative of the grand lodge present.

Meeting of Directors.

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Oneonta Community association at the Community house Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting will be followed by a conference of representatives of the organizations which will participate in the Community Chest project.

NEED PLAYGROUNDS

So Declares Dr. Johnson Addressing Children's Society at Cooperstown

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Annual Meeting of Society Preceded by Luncheon at New Paltz Hotel—Attendance 130—Excellent Report by Miss Foster, County Agent.

"Playgrounds and recreation facilities are the best investment a community can make, as they reduce juvenile delinquency and crime and aid in the development of physically strong men and women," Dr. Charles Johnson, secretary of the state board of charities, told the 130 persons present at the annual meeting of the Children's society of Oneonta county, held at the New Paltz hotel at Cooperstown yesterday afternoon. Dr. Johnson has had wide experience in the management of industrial schools and reformatory institutions and his judgment may be accepted as the result of wide study and much knowledge. The question each community must determine is whether its boys and girls are to become assets or liabilities and the attitude of the citizens of each community toward this question will quite likely determine the answer, Dr. Johnson said. Some taxpayers will look upon playgrounds as a tax, but the facts as experience has unquestionably shown that playgrounds are effective in preventing larger outlays for disserviceable tasks later.

These comments were embraced in a very interesting and profitable address in which Dr. Johnson declared that the gathering of so many men and women on a week-day for the purpose of promoting the welfare of the children of the county was a remarkable one. Were it of bankers or dairymen it would be expected, because material benefits would follow, but when saving child life is involved so many are indifferent, though it is a most important question. Your presence, said he, is evidence that you believe in the work and love it. To do this work pays dividends beyond the computation of your most capable accountants, the speaker declared.

He emphasized that if society is to avoid a race of weaklings that every child should be given a fair chance to develop into full manhood and womanhood. Neglect and ignorance of the simple rules governing the growth and development of the child are the chief causes of our trouble and such Christians as this spreads enlightenment. Our people have only to be shown and their support is heartily given.

In closing the speaker said that it is of infinitely more importance that Oneonta county be known as the best place in which to rear children, to make them wholesome and strong than that it be famed for its blooded cattle, for its agricultural or manufactured products. The question of industries will care for itself if you can show the world that it is the best place in which to live. Care well for your boys and girls and society will have no serious problems in future years.

Other Speakers.

Miss H. Ida Curry, head of the department of children's agencies of the state board of charities, was the second speaker and she spoke with special emphasis upon the importance of a trained worker for the children, which the county maintains in the person of Miss Foster. She told of the work that the state and federal agencies for child welfare are doing and emphasized the importance of the individual interest of citizens, asserting that legislators are not only willing but eager to give aid to such work when convinced that it is the popular demand.

Mrs. Arthur Bjerson spoke briefly at the earnest request of Miss Wardell, telling of her experiences and observations while in Poland and in China, in the former country having opportunity to observe the work of the Red Cross in relieving the distress of the children. The latter she eulogized in enthusiastic terms and in closing she urged hearty devotion to work for children locally, declaring it to be the most satisfactory and most satisfying and with the grandest results of any task that one can undertake.

Report of Miss Foster.

Miss Hazel Foster, county agent of the society, read a most interesting and instructive report of her activities for the past year, referring at length to several cases which were appealing and illustrative of the value and need of the work. The report, however, is too long to be reproduced here.

Her duties she outlined as including the supervision of the normal dependent child, provision for the defective child, and for delinquent boys and girls and the supervision of families where home conditions need improvement. She has given attention to 170 families during the year of these 170 were families previously unknown to the agency prior to the present year.

The following cases necessitated action on the part of the agent:

Immorality in the home 32
Feeble-mindedness 25
Neglect of children 15
Improper guardianship 10
Death of parent 10
Infantile paralysis 5
In addition to these, tuberculosis, old age, sickness, juvenile delinquency, inefficiency in the home, epilepsy and blindness were responsible for some of the cases with which the agent came in contact. One lost child was referred to her and her aid was sought in the case of a family where there was no school for the children to attend. During the year it was necessary for the society to secure support for 17 children from the public treasury, to offset which the agent secured the discharge of 25 children from public support. The agent has reported on the applications of 60 people, who wanted to take children for adoption or to board.

Old Officers Re-Elected.

Following a luncheon, which reflected credit upon the Fenimore management and of which 148 persons partook with evident enjoyment, the business session was held. In the absence of President Adrian A. Furman, who was unable to remain for the business session, owing to a term of county court in session, with criminal business in progress, Vice President Harris L. Cooke presided and very graciously presented the speakers.

In addition to re-electing all the old officers, two vacancies on the board of directors were filled by the election of Mrs. Porter K. Hadson of Worcester

COMING FAIR WEEK

Charles K. Champlin and His Company at Oneonta Theatre.

Theatregoers will no doubt be happy to learn that everything will be in readiness and it is now assured that Charles K. and his excellent company will again pay Oneonta a visit fair week. As announced in yesterday's Star, the theatre will not be completed, as to the finishing touches by the decorators, carpets and diaperies will not be in place. However by the untiring effort of the contractors, McElroy & Borst, by working a day and night set of men, the management assures that the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15 Monday night. The opening play selected for this season for Monday night is "Scandal" Cosmo Hamilton's greatest Broadway success, the most talked of play 101 years in New York. It made Elton the Lorriener and Constance Talmadge famous. It will be offered Monday night on the new stage of the Oneonta theatre at popular prices, exactly as seen on Broadway at $5.00 pike. Other plays to be presented during the week with matinees daily commencing Tuesday are: "Turn To The Right," by the producers of "Lightning," My Lady Friends, the Man Kin-Ed, written by Mr. Champlin, Sex Against Sex and Johnny Get Your Gun.

Seat sale for all evening performances will go on sale Monday morning at the box office at 10 a. m.

Fire Prevention Week.

The week beginning October 9th has been designated by the Underwriters' association as annual Fire Prevention week. Plans for its observance in Oneonta are now being made by city officials and by the Chamber of Commerce. It is expected that committees representing both the city and the Chamber of Commerce will be appointed within the next few days. It is hoped to make the event one of special significance this year.

U. C. T. Meeting Tonight.

Regular meeting of Oneonta council, United Commercial Travelers, this evening at 8 o'clock at Odd Fellows hall. First meeting of season. Full attendance desired. adv. 11 and Mrs. Alice Clarke of Schuyler Lake.

The last business of the afternoon was the report of Hon. Charles Smith, treasurer of the society, which showed that all the society's bills are paid, with a working balance remaining. The business necessary to continue the work another year will be adopted by the board at an early meeting.

The attendance was large, gratifyingly evidencing a keen interest in the work of the society—one that should appeal to every citizen interested in humanity's welfare and the preservation of our national life and institutions.

SEVEN HURT AT GILBOA

Workers Injured When Truck Rolls Down Steep Embankment—Two Men Brought to Fox Hospital—One in Critical Condition.

Seven men were injured, one perhaps fatally, when at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a huge five-ton truck on which they were riding struck some loose dirt on the new road near the reservoir dam at Gilboa and rolled down the steep embankment near the site of the dam. Two of them, Jules Cellario and Juan Augusto Gabriel, natives of Spain, are brought to the Fox hospital.

The men arrived at the hospital about 10 o'clock, where they were attended by Dr. Arthur W. Cutler. Gabriel was found to be suffering from a compound dislocation of the ankle and other more serious injuries that make his condition very critical. Cellario is thought to be suffering from a fractured skull. Two other men, one of whom suffered internal injuries and the other a fractured collar bone, were taken to the Kingston hospital. The other three, including the driver of the truck, suffered only minor bruises and were attended to at the camp hospital.

It was almost miraculous that any of the men escaped with their lives. The men were riding on the truck which carried several heavy pieces of lumber. The road is just being built and as they approached a steam roller on a curve and attempted to turn out the new dirt gave way, sending their truck rolling down the embankment. The truck righted itself just before it reached the bottom.

Although there are about 2000 men working on the giant Gilboa dam this is the first accident of a serious nature that has happened. A camp hospital has been established and physicians employed there cared for the men. It was thought advisable, however, to remove the four to larger and better equipped hospitals.

MABEL P. BROOKS WINS

Takes First Money in 2:18 Event at Afton Fair—Lady Blinola Turns and Throws Driver 20 Feet.

Afton, Sept. 15.—Much excitement was caused in the second heat of the 2:18 race at the fair today, when Lady Blinola, owned by G. L. Page of Herkimer and driven by her owner, stumbled and fell, throwing Mr. Page about 20 feet. The mare herself was led back to the stable and did not start in the next heat, but it is not thought that her injuries were serious. The driver, it is stated, sustained no serious injuries. The race was won by Mabel P. Brooks, owned by D. O. Webb of Oneonta, the best time being 2:15. The Webb filly is making a good record for herself this season, and is entered in the 2:14, 2:18 and free-for-all races at the Oneonta fair next week. The 2:25 race was won by Byron Forester. The races today—last day of the fair—will be a 2:21 pace and a free-for-all. There are several entries in each and the outlook is for speedy contests.

The attendance at the fair today was over 7,000. The number of paid admissions each day has been large and the fair will close its gates Friday evening on one of the most successful exhibitions in its history.

Edmunds, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edmunds and Marvin Reynolds motored to Batavia and Gibbstown yesterday to inspect the new dam that the city of New York is constructing there, and were impressed with the size of the undertaking. Mr. M. W. Edmunds is enjoying a vacation this week and is improving it by daily trips to various places, having visited Albany earlier in the week.

United States Senator William M. Calder and wife, accompanied by Congressman John D. Clarke of this district, were in Oneonta yesterday on their way to Washington, D. C., from Delhi, where the senator delivered an address at the Delaware County fair. During his brief stay in Oneonta, a number of Mr. Calder's friends in city and vicinity had the pleasure of greeting him. His speech at Delhi appears in another column.

Funeral of Sergeant Slavin.

The funeral of Sergeant Charles R. Slavin will be held from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Slavin, 43 Prospect street, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. E. J. Farley will officiate and interment will be made in the Plains cemetery.

Sergeant Slavin, a member of Company K, 9th Infantry regiment, A. E. F., was, it is believed, the first of Oneonta's sons to fall in the great war, his death occurring in action in the Argonne forest on October 3, 1918. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Oneonta post of the American Legion, who will furnish a firing squad to pay last military honors to a former comrade-in-arms. It is requested by Commander Berghin of the legion that every legionnaire who can possibly do so be present to pay tribute of respect to one who so nobly performed his duty. It is especially asked that legion members donate the use of their automobiles to convey the funeral party to the cemetery.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

Ora Kohn of East Worcester Found Not Guilty in Liquor Case.

Practically all day yesterday in the county court at Cooperstown was devoted to the trial of the case of the people vs. Ora Kohn of Worcester. This was a hard case and the action was brought under the old state liquor law, which prior to the spring of the present year was in effect, the present penal law not having been at that time enacted; and it was necessary to show that the older alleged to have been sold contained more than 2.75 per cent of alcohol. The jury retired at about 1 o'clock and was out an hour and a half, returning with a verdict of not guilty.

It is probable that the case of the people vs. Lewis Buff of Richfield Springs, an action the alleged cause of which arose under the new law. This case will be the last one to be brought to trial, the calendar, which was entirely criminal, having been cleared.

The Quick and Easy Way to Make Grape Jelly

Makes Two-Thirds More Jelly From Same Amount of Fruit, and Never Fails

Uses Ripe Grapes, Takes Only One Minute's Boiling, and Saves All the Flavor and Color

Grape jelly has been the pride of many housewives for years. No better conserve to serve with meats or to spread on bread is known. Certainly of jellifying and preserving the real taste and color of grapes, however, has been the problem that even experts have worried over.

A new and never-failing method has now been discovered with which anyone can make the best quality quickly and very economically. With the "Certo Process," full-ripe grapes are used—not unripe grapes so necessary by the old method. The "Certo Process" remains all the rich flavor of this ripe fruit because it requires only one minute's boiling—not the 20 or more minutes required by the old method. This long boiling-down, of course, destroys juice and particularly kills the real grape taste. With Certo, therefore, the result is a far superior fruit flavor and two-thirds more jelly from the same amount of fruit, because no juice is boiled away. It also banishes all guesswork or worry as perfect results are certain.

The new "Certo Process" for making grape jelly is very simple: Crush well about 3½ pounds of ripe grapes and add ½ cup of water. Simmer in covered saucepan for 15 minutes. Put cooked fruit in jelly bag and strain out as much juice as possible. Measure 5½ heaping cups (3½ lbs.) sugar and then 4 cups (2 lbs.) of

SENATOR CALDER AT DELHI

GUEST AT LUNCHEON OF CONGRESSMAN CLARKE; ADDRESSES FAIR CROWD.

Annual Exhibition of Delhi Fair Association Comes to Successful Close—Calder's Speech and Free for All Race Yesterday's Notable Features.

Delhi, Sept. 15.—The fine autumn weather stood by the Delhi Fair association from start to finish, and the 1921 exhibition came to a close today in a very successful manner. While the crowds present on no day have been record-breaking, yet the average attendance has been good and the Fair association feels well satisfied with the results.

The special features of the closing day were the speech of United States Senator William M. Calder and the 1921 exhibition came to a close today in a very successful manner. While the crowds present on no day have been record-breaking, yet the average attendance has been good and the Fair association feels well satisfied with the results.

Senator Calder's Speech.
Senator Calder's speech, which elicited much favorable comment from those fortunate enough to hear it, follows in its entirety:

Ladies and Gentlemen:
I have looked forward to this visit with great pleasure. When Congressman Clarke asked me to come, I accepted his invitation at once, for I have often wished, for the opportunity of coming here and meeting the good people of Delaware county.

Seventy years ago a branch of my family settled here. Though I have rarely visited you, I have always known of the splendid character of your citizenship. There is no county in the state where the people have been more enterprising and more loyal to the state and nation.

Delaware county is a great agricultural community. Those of us who live in New York city appreciate the fact that you produce milk, butter and cheese, unexcelled by any other county in the state.

I presume you would have me talk to you about some of the matters we are considering at Washington. When President Harding took office on March 4th last his administration was immediately confronted by the necessity of completely and at once reorganizing all of the departments of the government.

Before the war the cost of conducting the entire federal government was in the neighborhood of one billion dollars annually, and this year it will be over four billion dollars. A most careful scrutiny into every function of the government is being made, and the pruning knife is being used relentlessly to cut out the extravagances and waste that permeated the departments in Washington in the days following the war.

We have had a difficult task and it is not yet over. It is an easy matter to increase expenditures, but it is most difficult to cut them down. Since March 4th, we have reduced the expenditures of the government, based on estimates made by the last administration, over a billion and a half dollars, and the department heads have promised that they will keep down these expenses at least $500,000,000 more than the sum allowed.

We have created a Budget Bureau and the President has appointed General Dawes as the presiding officer.

We have created a Bureau for the reorganization of the departments of the government, presided over by Mr. Brown of Ohio.

These two commissions are working together. They are abolishing useless offices and doing away with the activities of government not absolutely necessary.

Before the war the money to run the government was obtained by a tariff tax on imports and an internal revenue tax upon liquor and tobacco. These, with the postal revenues, gave us all the funds necessary to operate the business of the nation. Now, despite every effort to economize, it will cost this year upwards of $4,000,000,000.

This vast sum is necessary because of the fact that we must spend $1,000,000,000 annually for interest on our bonds, $250,000,000 for the amortization of our debt; $500,000,000 for the care of the sick and wounded soldiers of the world war; $250,000,000 for Spanish and Civil war veterans and widows. This, together with $700,000,000 for the army and navy this year and other departments of the government, will easily account for the vast sums required.

We can never hope to go back to our pre-war budget. It will be a generation before our debt is paid. Then the surplus which the government must purchase will never be as cheap as they were before.

In the making of our new income tax law we must repeal the excess profits tax and the higher surtaxes. In doing this, I am certain we will contribute largely toward a revival of business and a restoration of confidence on the part of our great industries. We must, as far as possible, repeal what we are pleased to call the nuisance tax on clothing, transportation and the number of things on which taxes are now levied and which we need in every-day life.

In consideration of our new tariff laws, we must give every thought to the men and women of the nation, who are the great producers, the business men in the great cities, the workers, the employes, and perhaps most important of all—the farmer.

It was my privilege when the emergency tariff bill was passed, at the suggestion of your good Congressman, Mr. Clarke, to propose an amendment to the bill, which fixed the tariff on dairy products. Mr. Clarke insisted upon this and I took his advice. There was no class of business in America that needed protection more than the farmers of this country. Congress agreed with my proposal and today an equitable tariff is levied upon the products which compete with those of the farmers of Delaware county. Despite this tariff, prices have been going down with you and that is caused by the general depression throughout the world. But with the passage of the permanent tariff law, and the reduction of taxes in the revenue and now under consideration I am confident a revival of business confidence will come. Never before was the prospect for good times more certain; all we need is confidence in our country and each other and then go to work.

To quote Secretary of the Treasury John Sherman, who when asked concerning the resumption of specie payment after the civil war, said, "the way to resume is to resume."

If I were asked the best way to restore business confidence, my advice would be for everyone to go to work and produce. There are just as many mouths to feed, just as many backs to clothe, just as many feet that need shoes; in fact the number and needs

TO REDUCE DANGEROUS VARICOSE VEINS

People who have swollen veins or bunches should not wait until they reach the bursting point, which means much suffering and loss of time, but should at once secure from any reliable druggist a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emmeral Oil (fruit strength).

By using this powerful, yet harmless, varicose treatment improvement is noticed in a few days and by its regular use swollen veins will return to their normal size, and suffering will cease to worry. Moore's Emmeral Oil treatment is used by physicians and in hospitals and is guaranteed to accomplish results of money returned.

of the people are increasing. Stop hoarding the goods, the clothes and the farmers, and let us all join together in the determination that we are going to resume.

I am glad to be here in the home of your distinguished Congressman, Mr. Clarke. He has only been in Washington since March 4th, but in that short period he has clearly demonstrated his splendid capability as your representative and I am sure you are proud of the fine work he is doing.
